

Figure 8: Hill in upstate New York.
Photo by Wards, Inc

Figure 9: Two lakes in upper Midwest.

15. a. What is the name for this type of hill? (Figure 8)
- b. How does it indicate the direction of glacial movement?
16. a. What is the name for this type of circular shaped glacial lake? (Figure 9)
- b. Explain how this lake formed.

Figure 10: Glacial deposit.
Note person for scale.
Photo by G. Vorwald

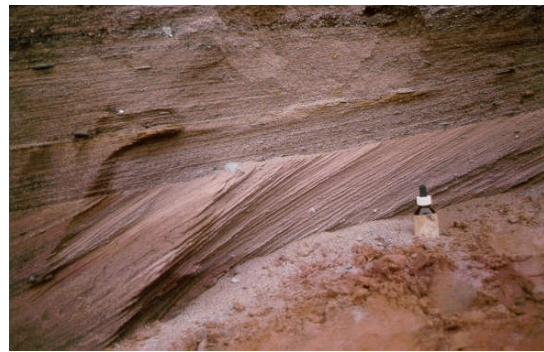

Figure 11: Glacial Sediments. Note dropper bottle for scale.

17. a. What is the name of the glacial deposit in Figure 10?
- b. Describe the process that resulted in deposition.
18. What is the name given to the type of glacial deposit in Figure 11?
19. Indicate two characteristics that are different about the deposits in Figure 10 and Figure 11.
20. How were the sediments in Figure 11 deposited?